Production number 402, a very well maintained example from new and last serviced less than 200km ago. The former property of an F1 racing driver which should give peace of mind it's been driven properly unlike other examples of this supercar that come to market. Complete with its original handbooks including its service/warranty supplement, leather pouch, certificate of authenticity, spare key, wheel nut, roof straps and warning triangle plus a well documented history file.
