Included in the sale of the Ecclestone Grand Prix Collection.

The car in which Alberto Ascari won the 1951 Italian Grand Prix at Monza.

The model in which Ferrari famously won their first ever Formula One race.

Powered by the famed 4.5-litre V12 engine.

One of only two surviving examples, the other residing for some time within another world class Ferrari collection.

Fresh from a total restoration by Ferrari which took over two years to complete, ensuring every detail was correct.

Ferrari 'Red Book' Classiche certified which confirms it still retains its original chassis, engine and gearbox.

One of the most historically important surviving Ferrari Grand Prix cars.
