The 75th of only 122 original Daytona Spyders ever produced. Delivered new to American television show host Don Cornelius who was best known as the creator of the nationally syndicated dance and music franchise 'Soul Train'. Stored for around 20 years at the Beverly Hills Hotel before being totally restored to its present Concours condition. Complete with books, original tool box, jacking kit and Ferrari Red Book Classiche Certification. An original Daytona Spyder is extremely rare, one such as this in its original colour, matching numbers, very low mileage and exquisite restoration is even more so!
