Included in the sale of the Ecclestone Grand Prix Collection.

The car in which Niki Lauda won the 1975 French Grand Prix and the 1975 Formula One World Championship.

The first Ferrari to win the World Championship since 1964.

Driven by Niki Lauda and Clay Regazzoni in the 1975 and 1976 Formula One Championship seasons.

Impeccably and accurately restored by marque specialists and following completion of the restoration, it was shown at the 2017 Pebble Beach Concours D'elegance where it won a class award.

One of only three Niki Lauda Championship winning Ferraris in existence.

Purchased by The Ecclestone Collection in 2019 after many years of searching for the right Grand Prix winning Lauda-Ferrari.
