

TOM HARTLEY JNR

1984 Brabham BT53
White with Parmalat Livery
£SOLD

Mileage	N/A miles	Engine Capacity	1499cc
Body Style	Formula-1 Car	Fuel	Petrol
Transmission	Manual	Chassis No.	4

Included in the sale of the Ecclestone Grand Prix Collection.

The model which scored a remarkable nine pole positions in the 1984 Formula One Championship season.

This particular chassis was driven by Nelson Piquet to a second place finish in the 1984 Austrian Grand Prix along with setting pole positions in the 1984 German and Portuguese Grands Prix.

Powered by BMW's 1.5-litre turbocharged engine that produced an extraordinary 850 bhp in qualifying specification.

A complete car that is presented in running condition and never before been offered for sale.