Body Style	Formula-1 Car	Fuel	Petrol
Transmission	Manual	Chassis No.	2/02

Included in the sale of the Ecclestone Grand Prix Collection.

One of two BRM P30 V16 Mark IIs in existence.

Raced in period by British racing driver Peter Collins.

The last V16 BRM to be built.

Finished 1st in two Formule Libre races – both with Peter Collins – the first at Goodwood and the second at Snetterton.

Just three owners from new after being sold by the company in 1981, with renowned collector and Pink Floyd drummer Nick Mason owning the car for nearly two decades before it joined the Ecclestone Grand Prix Collection.

A significant piece of British motorsport history known for drawing a crowd wherever it goes – and then leaving everyone
