1 of only 235 UK right-hand drive Dino 246 GTSs ever produced.

A total matching number example that was delivered new in the striking and super desirable colour of Nocciola Metallizzato, making it 1 of only 5 UK supplied GTSs to be delivered in this colour. In addition, it was specified in what many believe was the ultimate configuration, standard wheel arches but with Daytona style seats ('chairs'). Other factory fitted options included a full leather interior and electric windows.

The car remained in single ownership for 30 years with its first custodian and in recent years was owned by a very well-respected UK based Ferrari collector, where the GTS resided alongside the likes of a 288 GTO, 275 GTS, 275 GTB/4 plus many more. It was last serviced by the UK's leading model specialist, Nick Cartwright, and has been used lightly since then.

A total matching number example that comes complete with its leather pouch, original warranty card, operating maintenance and service handbook, spare parts catalogue, dealership directory plus a well-documented history file which includes its original order form, original dealer invoice and additional correspondence dating back to 1973.
