This Defender 90 Autobiography is 1 of only 100 cars ever produced, which were built to celebrate 67 years of the Defender. It has many unique features, including duo-tone exterior paint, power upgrade from 122 hp to 150 hp and an increase in torque from 360 Nm to 400 Nm. Windsor leather is utilised throughout the interior, including Semi-Aniline premium seats with twin needle contrast stitch and an embroidered Autobiography logo on each headrest. A perforated leather steering wheel, aluminium door locks, door handles and air vent bezels add to this distinctive finish. Aluminium fuel filler cap, deep pile front and rear carpet mats with Autobiography logo (front only) and full carpet floor trim, seven inch LED projector headlamps, privacy glass, gloss black split-spoke Sawtooth alloy wheels with Goodyear MT/R Tyres, audio upgrade with subwoofer, front under-body protection shield, side runners and rear step with metal finish, bright atlas â€˜Defenderâ€™ bonnet script, Autobiography badge detail to the rear. The Autobiography is the very zenith of Land Rover design, engineering and interior finishing.
