This car was originally supplied new in January 1990 through renowned Belgian dealer Francorchamps, to a Mr Armand Blaton who was a very well-known collector and brother to Jean "Beurlys" Blaton, the famous Ecurie Francorchamps driver. He kept the car until 2005 when it was sold with only 5,000 km on it. The car came to the UK in 2010 and has been in the hands of two very well-respected owners, Ferrari certified and has undergone a very extensive service recently including changing of the fuel tanks. It comes complete with its original service book, owners manuals, leather wallet, tool kit and wheel nut. One of the very best examples available!
