A very special car, 1 of only 6 factory prototypes produced of which 3 were destroyed, making, this particular car the oldest example that remains in existence today. It differs from production examples by way of its petrol tank configuration. Gifted new by Enzo Ferrari to the one and only owner, a Ferrari dignitary of the highest order. Recently mechanically recommissioned by the factory and awarded its Red Book Classiche Certification which confirms within it being a prototype, the owner it was gifted to and that it was gifted by the Commendatore himself. A very special car and a significant part of Ferrari's history!
