Included in the sale of the Ecclestone Grand Prix Collection.

The very first Ferrari 312 and the car that was famously unveiled by Enzo Ferrari to the press next to the Dino Prototype in November 1965.

Considered by Ferrari as one of if not the most original surviving Ferrari Formula One car in existence.

A multiple Grand Prix winner that also boasts three pole positions and was raced exclusively by either John Surtees or Lorenzo Bandini.

The car Piero Ferrari worked on as a young apprentice.

Ferrari 'Red Book' Classiche certified which confirms it still retains its original chassis, body, engine, and gearbox.
