The McLaren MP4/4 is regarded as the most dominant model in Formula One history, winning 15 out of the 16 races and leading 97.3% of all laps in the 1988 World Championship season.

This particular chassis was driven by 3-time World Champion Alain Prost to victory in Monaco, Mexico and the French Grand Prix.

Other chassis highlights include 4x fastest laps and 3x second place finishes.

Never crashed and retained by McLaren until 2020 at which time it was sold to a prominent collector with close ties to McLaren.

One of the most significant Formula One cars ever offered for sale.
