A total matching numbers example, delivered newt the UK in the striking and exceptionally rare colour combination of Viola Metallizzato over Nero, making it one of only three UK-supplied 246 GTSs finished in this combination. Of these three cars, this is the sole example specified from new with Daytona-style seats and standard wheel arches, a configuration considered by many to be the ultimate specification. Further factory-fitted options include electric windows.

Having had just four owners from new, including 34 years in the care of its most recent custodian, this Ferrari is accompanied by a well-documented history file containing its original factory production order, dealer sales invoice and its original registration number, first issued on 14th March 1974.

The car has recently undergone a comprehensive refurbishment, including a bare-metal respray, suspension, brake and chassis overhaul, together with new interior trim and carpets. All mechanical work, including the final road setup, was carried out by renowned Dino specialist Nick Cartwright Ltd.

A fantastic opportunity to acquire an exceptionally rare and desirable 246 GTS.
