Widely regarded as the definitive air-cooled 911, the Porsche 993 made its public debut at the Frankfurt Motor Show in September 1993. Renowned for its timeless design, analogue driving experience and exceptional engineering, the 993 remains one of the most sought-after models in the 911 lineage to this day. As a Cabriolet, it combines all of the charisma of the last air-cooled Porsche with the added pleasure of open-top motoring. The 993 is considered by many enthusiasts to be the sweet spot between classic and modern 911 ownership, offering everyday usability alongside unmistakable character. The Carrera Cabriolet represents an opportunity to acquire one of Stuttgart's most iconic sports cars in a specification that is both elegant and increasingly difficult to find.

This truly remarkable low-mileage, UK-supplied example benefits from single ownership for the last 22 years, is presented in one of the most desired colour combinations and was specified from the factory with electric Sport seats, 17" new Cup Design alloy wheels and Bremen RCM 42 radio and cassette.
