1 of only 200 examples ever produced, of which only 14 were UK right-hand drive cars. Original engine, gearbox, chassis, body and exterior colour as confirmed by its Ferrari â€˜Red Bookâ€™ Classiche certification. A very well presented older restoration and recently retrimmed by Luppi in period correct Vaumol leather interior. Good history file including copies of the original order form, invoice and correspondence, furthermore it is accompanied by a correct tool roll. A stunning example of an extremely desirable and much sought-after car, quite simply elegance personified!
