1 of only 80 produced worldwide, making it one of the rarest models ever to be produced by Ferrari. This particular example was a special order and finished in the unique colour of Nero Stellato over full HermÃ¨s orange leather interior. In addition, a very high specification was chosen, with optional extras that included; large carbon fibre racing seats, a white instrument dial, Nero Stellato painted dash inserts, alcantara carpets, Grigio seatbelts, HermÃ¨s orange leather floor mats, satellite navigation with bluetooth, tyre pressure monitoring system, rear park distance control, Scuderia Ferrari shields, matt black wheels, black front and rear Cavallino badges and a plaque to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the unification of Italy. A 599 SA Aperta is a car we're very fond of having handled several in the past and is regarded by many as the greatest modern day Ferrari. Of all the examples we've handled and seen, this is without doubt the most stunning!
