

2020 ROLLS-ROYCE Cullinan
Diamond Black with Seashell Leather
£SOLD

Mileage	10,518 miles	Engine Capacity	6749cc
Body Style	SUV	Fuel	Petrol
Transmission	Automatic	Chassis No.	200261

The Cullinan is the world's first ever SUV to be designed with coach doors and Rolls-Royce's first ever all-terrain vehicle. Taking its name from the largest uncut diamond ever discovered it presents a dominating profile in the 4x4 world. Fitted with the same 6.75 litre twin-turbocharged V12 petrol engine found in Rolls-Royce's flagship Phantom its performance is styled with the pinnacle of luxury and has been deemed by many as the most luxurious SUV to date.

Our example is a UK supplied one owner from new car that benefits from a fantastic spec, with factory options and additional features that includes; "Launch" package specification including; Horizon interior styling scheme, rear theatre configuration, picnic tables, front massage seats, contrast centre seat piping in black, R-R monogram stitched to all headrests in black, heated passenger surround, enhanced clock face, illuminated treadplates, polished interior stainless steel finishes, 22" 7-spoke part polished shadow wheels and exterior stainless steel finishes. Shooting star headliner, rear lounge seat configuration, extended leather headliner, extended veneer fascia in open pore black, chevron style wood veneer, head-up display, television tuner, DAB tuner, 3 x R-R rear seat lightweight wireless headphones and Wi-Fi hotspot preparation. Driver assistance system that includes; active cruise control, night vision along with pedestrian recognition. It further benefits from automatic door close, lambswool floor mats, wheel centre matched to wheels, chrome plated visible exhausts and universal garage door opener.

TOM HARTLEY JNR

Presented in excellent condition throughout our car comes complete with its original handbook, spare key, 2 x Rolls-Royce monogrammed umbrellas, Signature key rings, first aid kit, warning triangle and history file.