Delivered new in March 1967 to its first owner in Verona, Italy and then later exported to North America in the early 1970s.

Restored many years ago by Wayne Obrey's 'Motion Products', which is regarded as North America's leading Ferrari restoration specialist. But like many other examples at the time, it was finished in the more traditional Rosso and fitted with a Black leather interior. Upon our purchase of the car in early 2021, we immediately entrusted the car back to Motion Products for a fresh refurbishment whilst taking the opportunity to return it to its stunning and rare original colour combination of Azzurro over Rosso Connolly leather interior.

Upon completion of its most recent refurbishment, the car was sent to the prestigious Ferrari Concours event Cavallino where it was awarded Platino and First in Class and Excellence in Class at Mar-a-Lago the following day, a testament to the quality of its restoration.
